RTA Architects Promotes Ken Gregg to Principal

Colorado Springs, Colo. (December 28, 2021) – RTA Architects proudly announces that Ken Gregg, AIA has been promoted to Principal. Ken earned his Bachelor of Architecture degree from Kansas State University and brought more than a decade of experience to RTA when he joined the firm in 2005. He is one of the leaders of RTA’s K-12 education practice and has received numerous design awards for his work, most recently for the new Newton Middle School in Littleton, Colorado for Littleton Public Schools, the Lake City Community School addition and renovation in the Hinsdale County School District, the new Chinook Trail Middle School in Academy District 20, and Jones Hall and Palmer Hall at the Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind.

“Ken's enthusiasm and understanding of learning environments creates some of the best learning environments in Colorado. Ken works collaboratively with our clients to truly understand their goals and lead our design team to deliver high-quality outcomes from the beginning of design through the completion of construction.” Said Doug Abernethy AIA, RTA Principal.

Ken is a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Association of Learning Environments (A4LE). He is also very active in his home community of Peyton, Colorado where he served on The Manufacturing Industry Learning Lab (MiLL) National Training Center Advisory Board and the Peyton Cemetery Board of Directors.
